

English Business Lunch

for professors - Level B2+

Conversation Group

Course Description

"Life is like a cup of tea - it's all in how you make it" (Irish Proverb)

This workshop is designed for professors with good knowledge of English who would like to improve their English speaking skills. In this informal lunchtime meeting we drink tea, eat biscuits and practice language and rhetorical skills in a relaxed and informal atmosphere.

Course Aims

- improvement of English language and rhetorical skills
- preparation of short introductions to a chosen topic as a basis for group discussion/debate
- further development of reading comprehension of written texts/current newspaper articles etc.
- discussion of grammar problems, pronunciation, colloquialisms, idioms etc.
